NORTHBRIDGE — Privacy Statement

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Last updated: September 2026

NorthBridge CFO (referred to as “NorthBridge”, “we”, “us” or “our”) respects the privacy of individuals who engage with its website or contact the business.

This Privacy Statement explains how personal information provided to NorthBridge is handled.

Information collected

NorthBridge may collect personal information that you voluntarily provide, including your name, contact details, organisation details and information contained in correspondence or enquiries.

The website currently provides contact through direct email rather than a website contact form.

NorthBridge seeks to collect information that is reasonably necessary for responding to enquiries, communicating with clients and prospective clients, providing services, maintaining business records and meeting applicable legal or regulatory obligations.

How information is used

Personal information may be used to:

- respond to enquiries and requests;
  - communicate with clients and prospective clients;
  - provide and manage professional services;
  - maintain business records; and
  - meet applicable legal or regulatory obligations.

NorthBridge does not sell personal information.

Disclosure of information

Personal information may be disclosed where reasonably necessary for the purposes described above, where you have consented, or where disclosure is required or authorised by law.

NorthBridge may use external service providers where reasonably necessary to operate its business or provide its services. Where this occurs, NorthBridge seeks to ensure that personal information is handled appropriately.

NorthBridge does not sell or trade personal information for commercial purposes.

Security and retention

NorthBridge takes reasonable steps to protect personal information from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

Information is retained for as long as reasonably required for the purposes for which it was collected, to maintain appropriate business records, or to meet legal or regulatory requirements.

Access and correction

You may request access to personal information NorthBridge holds about you and request that inaccurate or incomplete information be corrected.

Requests can be made by contacting NorthBridge using the contact details provided on this website.

Privacy enquiries and complaints

If you have a question, concern or complaint about the handling of your personal information, please contact NorthBridge in the first instance using the contact details provided on this website.

NorthBridge will consider and respond to privacy enquiries and complaints within a reasonable period.

Sensitive information

The website does not request sensitive personal information. You should avoid sending sensitive personal information by ordinary email unless it is necessary for your enquiry or engagement with NorthBridge.

Changes to this statement

This Privacy Statement may be updated from time to time to reflect changes in NorthBridge's business practices or applicable requirements.

For privacy enquiries, please contact NorthBridge through the contact details provided on this website.